St Giles School Vocations Week 22nd-26th April 2024

If there are any parents/ grandparents or friends who would be willing to share their vocation with our children – maybe you work in the field of conservation, medicine, retail, volunteering, service, farming, ecology, youth work, care transport, the forces or anything that you have been called to do- we would love it if you could come into school and talk to the children or do an activity related to your work.

Throughout the visits during vocations week, we hope children will encounter visitors who witness their faith through their vocation. From paramedics to engineers, priests to beauticians, our actions as a job allow us to bear witness to our faith. We hope that children will come away from the vocations experiences with the opportunity to evaluate their purpose in life and think about their future.

We would appreciate it if you could spare some time during the week to come and speak to the children. However small the time you can offer, we would be love them to learn about your work and how we might inspire the next generation to listen to what God is calling them to be.

If you can spare any time during the week, please contact Miss Goodstadt or Mrs Wilkin via the school office.
